DECISIONS. DECISIONS.

DECIDING YOU NEED ONE IS EASY. DECIDING WHICH ONE – THAT'S THE TOUGH PART.

Gas or diesel? Two or four passengers? Mid-size or full-size? Do you want it to tiptoe through the tulips or tear through the woods? Maybe this will help...

CASE IH SCOUT™

- ▶ This two-seat, gas-powered UTV has a powerful Vanguard Briggs & Stratton engine that boasts 8 percent more horsepower and torque than its mid-size competition.
- ▶ Don't be fooled by the smaller size. This is one smooth-riding, easy-handling UTV, thanks to the MacPherson strut front suspension and independent rear suspension. (It's the only vehicle in its class with independent rear suspension.)
- ▶ Go easy on the topsoil, landscapes and lawns – and power through tough terrain – thanks to on-off 2WD/4WD and differential lock controls.
- ▶ Go ahead. Brake it. You get better, more reliable braking from the four-wheel hydraulic disk brakes and CVT engine braking.
- ▶ Plug in your GPS, air compressor, MP3 player or anything else that fits in the optional 12V outlet.

CASE IH SCOUT XL™

- ▶ No compromises. No reconfiguring. Plenty of choices. It's a full-size, two- or four-passenger 4WD available in gas or diesel, with accessories to handle just about everything.
- ▶ Pick your power plant. Choose a 23-hp air-cooled gas engine or a 20-hp liquid-cooled diesel engine.
- ▶ It can't actually fly. But it is built with an aircraft-quality, rust-proof aluminum frame, and a powder-coated steel box with a rust-proof aluminum floor.
- ▶ Heavy payloads pose no problem, thanks to the full-size, 800 lbs. (1,050 lbs. optional) bed box capacity and total vehicle capacity of 1,600 lbs.
- ▶ Navigate tough terrain with an on-demand 4WD system that allows all four wheels to drive as conditions demand – and eliminates the need to stop and shift in rough conditions.
- ▶ Ride comfortably and save wear and tear on the tires, with the double A front arm suspension. The swing-arm design on the rear suspension reduces body roll and side-to-side sway.

LOAD IT UP.
